IOTA'S PHENOMENAL RACE

De Reszke and James V. Only Successful -Bill Daly's Illyria Leads All the Way-Austin Allen Beats the 925,000 Britisher at Brighton Beach.

Under the blazing rays of the sun the Brighton track was drying rapidly all yesterday afternoon, but near the inner rail was a broad elt of heavy going which the level-headed ockeys took particular care to avoid. Four avorites went back to the paddock defeated, but every winner was well supported at that, Hildebrand riding three of them. H. B. Durrea's Iota, a filly by Sandringham-Clemenins, ran a wonderful race in the closing event of the day, a five and a half furlong dash for maiden two-year-old fillies. She opened an equal favorite with Linda Lee t 5 to 2, but went back to threes as the latter beaten down to 7 to 5. When the barrier was sprung, lots refused to break and was oft. Hildebrand hit her with the whip and sign a long, stern chase. Gradually over-suling one after another, Mr. Duryea's filly found herself in a position to challenge Bill" Daly's Salt and Pepper, 20 to 1, who was eading at the head of the stretch. Hildebrand ent to the extreme outside of the track, away. The time was 1:09.

John A. Drake's $25,000 Britisher, 4 to 5 favorite, went down to ignominious defeat in the first race, for two-year-olds, at six furlongs. H. B. Duryea's Dreamer, 9 to 5, broke in front, but Britisher went to him quickly and together they raced neck and neck to the head of the stretch. When Hildebrand put the whip to Dreamer, however, the Hamburg gelding swerved over to the rail, where the going was heavy, and stopped. Redfern, meanwhile, rushed up from third place with Jack McGinnis's Austin Allen, 9 to 1, and, keeping the colt in the dry part of the track, brought him home victorious in a drive by three parts of a length. Britisher finished two lengths in front of Frank Clarkon's C. W. R. 150 to 1, who best Amberiack

In the second race, at a mile and a sixteenth, J. G. Follansbee's Rochampton was a heart breaker for those who hammered him down from 8 to 5 to 4 to 5. Bardolph, 3 to 1, raced the favorite off his feet in the first threerters of a mile and then seemed to have the race to himself, but in the stretch Glisten, 8.to 1 ridden by Hildehrand, took command n the dry going and won handily by two engths in 1:48 1-5. Bardolph was three lengths in front of Conkling, a 40 to 1 shot. Hildebrand rode another winner in the Highweight Handicap, at six furlongs, when he made all the running with James V., backed lown to 5 to 2 favorite, and finished three Chancellor, 9 to 2, was the second horse, beathead. James R. Keene's Kohinoor, 3 to 1. second choice, was outrun from the start and was three lengths outside of the money.

The time was 1:14, "Father Bill" Daly's Illyria, 4 to 1, well played, led from barrier to wire in the handi-cap, at a mile and a furlong, and was a comparatively easy winner by two lengths. Lord Badge, who was ridden by Cummings, was second all the way and beat Carbuncle, even money favorite, half a length. Grenade rechived a weird ride from Gannon and was a Twelve horses were scratched from the fifth event, at a mile and a sixteenth, leaving De Reszke, Cincinnatus and Flammula to go. De Reszke ruled an even money favorite, Flammula being strongly supported at 8 to 5. while 11 to 2 was the best price against Cincinnatus at the close. When the barrier was raised Flammula was practically left, but Crimmins rushed her up to De Reszke, the pacemaker, in the middle of the back stretch a fest that soon made her stop to nothing. Cincinnatus, under Hildebrand's persuasion. De Reszke stood a drive and won by a length in 1:47 2-5. The attendance was about 15,000

MOTORCYCLISTS HAVE SAND.

Twelve of Them Persist in Contest Through Terrible Roads to Cambridge, Md.

Word was received here yesterday from the motorcyclists who left New York on Wednesday morning in the endurance contest to Cambridge, Md., where the annual racemeet and convention of the Federation of American Motorcyclists is to be held reached Wilmington for the night's stop Wednesday and twelve reached Cambridge on their wheels Thursday night.

The travel Thursday was through sandy wastes as bad as those of the Nevada desert. according to the report, and two of the riders train when near Cambridge, these two maktrain when near Cambridge, these two making fourteen of the contestants to arrive. Of a touring division of fifteen that started from New York on Tuesday only three got through the sand on their wheels, yet one of these was M. E. Toepel, the one-armed president of the New York Motorcycle Club. Yesterday and to-day at Cambridge the programme consists of races and the annual business meeting of the federation.

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR BRIGHTON. Pine Field Named to Go in the $25,00

A remarkable field has been named to start in the $25,000 Brighton Handicap, one mile and a quarter, to be run at the Beach track this afternoon. The track, if no more will probably be few scratches. But it will have to be perfect as to condition to enable the racing public to see the famous Water-boy, who will pick up 129 pounds. The black horse worked over the handicap dis tance the other day in 2:07 and a fraction, and was in hand all the way. He was never in better shape in his life, and if he goes he will probably rule favorite. While Hermis also with 129 pounds, is included in the list sent out officially, it was said after the races yesterday that the Suburban winner might not start. His trainer, W. Shields, was quoted as saying that if the matter were left to him he would decide to keep Hermis in the barn. The Hermence horse struck himself in the Test Handicap on Wednesday, when he ran a mile with 133 pounds on his back in 1:38 and, though he has been galloping since then Shields thinks that he valuable a horse to take chances with. But as the handicap is the richest, in point of monetary value, that will be run this year, the trainer of Hermis may be overruled by

E. R. Thomas and his partner, Alex Shields. On excellent authority it was said yesterday that Irish Lad will be seen for the last tim there the going was dry and dusty, and Iota in to-day's race if the track is good. Accordne home winner in a heavy drive by a length, ing to report, the celebrated Candlemas col Salt and Pepper beat Linda Lee by half a has recently developed a ringbone, which length, with James R. Keene's Intrigue means usually that a horse so afflicted must retire from the turf. Irish Lad has not been working much for this race, but he never was a great work horse, and has been pretty nearly on edge all the year. He will carry a great work horse, and has been pretty nearly on edge all the year. He will carry 127 pounds. John A. Drake's wonderful three-year-old colt Ort Wells, winner of the Tidal, the Commonwealth and the Realization, will probably have a big following. His impost is 108 pounds; including penalties. Highball, the American Derby winner, has to take up seven pounds more than Ort Wells, under the same conditions, yet the Drake colt has shown himself to be Highball's master in all ways. Ort Wells won the Commonwealth Handicap, same distance, with 110 pounds. The Picket, with 126, and Irish Lad, with 132, running second and third, respectively. The time was 2:08 2-5, but the pace was slow. The Picket, about whom there were rumors yesterday of unsoundness, will shoulder 124 pounds, the same weight to be packed by Major Daingerfield, who, if his last race can be taken as a criterion, may prove something of a factor, even on a dry track, although the mud is his best medium for successful performances. Eugenia Burch, with 110 pounds and Shaw up, may run a better race than in previous events, while S. S. Brown's three-year-old, Broomstick, who took Waterboy's measure the first time out in a fast mile, is in with 104 pounds and will be ridden by Burns. E. R. Thomas has named both Palmbearer and St. Valentine, three-year-olds, to go in case Hermis does not start. It is expected that 35,000 people will see the race, as the accommodations at Brighton are larger than ever before. The conditions and entries for the Brighton Handicap are as follows.

There will be lockers, shower baths, plunges and every up to date athletic appliance. The idea of Fitzpatrick is to make the place the training quarters for all sorts of athletes. There is no place of its kind within Greater New York, and Sam has every confidence that the project will be a success. The venture is backed by several wealthy sportsmen and business men and has been incorporated in this State with a capital of $100,000. Plans for the gymnasium have been filed and the building is to be completed by Sept. 1. Boxing, wrestling and fencing will be taught. ## GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

JOHN A. DRAKE LOSES $10,000 ON HIS COLT BRITISHER.

Also Drops Thousands on Rochampton and High Chancellor—Yeager Cashes on James V.—Smathers Wins $8,000 on De Reszke-Burns to Ride for Brown.

John A. Drake had a hard time picking the winners at Brighton yesterday. He began by losing $10,000 on his high priced colt Britisher in the first race, his agents taking 4 to 5. Then he dropped $5,000 on Roehampton in the second race and wagered $2,000 on his colt High Chancellor straight, in the third. After that he cut his wagers down to a minimum. Drake's turf associate, A. B. Hudson, parted with $5,000, which was placed on Linda Lee at 7 to 5 in the last race.
While Drake's money was consumed by Britisher, "Lucky Jack" McGinnis had $1,000 straight and $2,000 for place on his colt Austin Allen, who won this event at 9 to 1 and 9 to 5, which, following his $18,000 coup with Blue Coat on Thursday, fattened "Jack's" bank-ehampton's defeat put nearly all of the big players up in the air. George Wheeock bet $3,500 on the Bathampton horse, Frank Lanterman lost $5,000 on him, Bookmaker Harris burned up $2,500 and Joe Yeager was caught for $4,000. But Yeager had a "saver" on Glisten at 6 to 1, who won with the plunger's jockey, Hildebrand, in the saddle. Yeager made his biggest bet on James V. in the third race. The Farandale colt, recently purchased from M. Murphy by U. Z. De Arman, opened at 6 to 1, and Yeager's commissioners went from book to book asking the layers how much they wanted. It was said that Yeager got down $7,000, the price dropping to 5 to 2, and in many cases the chalkers rubbing it off their slates altogether. Yeager lost $3,000 on Cincinnatus in the fifth

Hildebrand up, in the last race. John Walters, the clubhouse agent, placed big money on James V. E. E. Smathers wagered $8,000 straight on De Reszke. George Wheelock went to the same horse for $5,000 at 4 to 5, the price going back to even money a few moments later. The ring, as a whole

Tommy Burns signed a contract yesterday to ride for Capt. S. S. Brown for the rest of the season. Burns will have the mount on Broomstick in his new employer's colors to-day. He has been riding all the year as a free lance, but has not enjoyed his former success, though in good form. Possibly his new engagement will prove a turning

It is not often that the winner of a selling race on local tracks is bid up, as there is remarkable absence of animosity among the owners who participate in these affairs but when M. L. Hayman's De Reszke, en-tered to be sold for $1,200, took the fifth race yesterday, C. J. Kelly began boosting the figures until he had reached $2,700. Them Hayman bld an extra $5 and the Lamplighter horse was led back to the paddock. Half of the amount of the run up, $750, went to Mrs. James Blute, owner of Cincinnatus, who ran second, and the other half went to the Racing Association. Hayman bet $2,000 on the horse at even money.

Starter Cassidy suspended Shaw for two days for disobedience at the post. Somebody erred when Crimmins was an-nounced on the blackboard in the betting ring as the rider of Lord Badge in the fourth race instead of Cummings, who had the mount. When the mistake was discovered it was the means of sending the price up from 5 to 2 to 6 to 1, yet Cummings rode a very good race under the circumstances.

The crowd stood transfixed when Gannon ept him under a choking pull in the run up out went up to threes, his race showing that it was not his day. George Wheelock picked Illyria as a good thing and bet about $4,000 on the Daly horse at 4 to 1. The handicap-pers also played Illyria and he ran true to their figures.

It is said that the colored help employed on nearly all of the Kentucky breading farms have gone on strike, demanding eight

There was plent y of 15 to 1 to show against Frank Clarkson's C. W. R. in the first race and a select coterie picked up the price for small bets all over the ring. C. W. R. is a gelding by Russell-Bayadere, and was well rid den by Cormack, who is making a reputation as a successful handler of long shots. It is the general impression that John A. Drake in paying $25,000 to John E. Madden for Britisher purchased an overrated colt. The son of Plaudit chucked it up in the stretch vesterday when Austin Allen, by Gonsalvo

-Nell Dale, challenged him.

Trainer Mason could not account for the esterday that Lester Reiff would be reinstated to good standing by the French Jockey Club. It was also reported that a well known Tammany politician has interceded with the Jockey Club in behalf of Tod Sloan, and that the jockey may be allowed to ride here in a few weeks. Sloan is busy working horses every morning at Sheepshead Bay, and is sorely in need of employment, so his friends say. He is a daily visitor at the track, and has been playing the game with some success, though his bets have been necessarily small.

Sammy Doggett started Fairy Dance, a daughter of Huron-Nellie Van, hence a half sister to Advance Guard, in the same race, and she was backed down to 40 to 1 from 100.

J. L. McGinnis, with a comparatively small stable, has won about $12,000 in stakes and purses this season, in addition to taking big money from the bookmakers on many occa-

BIG FIGHT IS OFF. or Weaver Beligie to Lot Piles and O'Brien Box &t Philadelph

PRILADRIANIA, July 8.—Bob Fitzsimmons and Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia did not have an opportunity of swatting each other at Philadelphia to-night, for at the last moment their six round bout was declared off. Late this afternoon Mayor Weaver of Philadelphia refused to grant a permit for the contest much to the charter and disappoint. contest, much to the chagrin and disappointment of the management, who had gone to some expense in the arrangements for the bout. The contest was to have been held in the open air at the Philadelphia Baseball Park. That a large crowd would have at-tended was evident, for up to 3 o'clock this posed of. The news that the scrap would not be held came like a thunderbolt from a clear sky to the sports. Sporting men arrived in Philadelphia in drowes from New York, Baltimore, Washington and other neighboring oities. At first they were inclined to take the announcement that there would not be any tilt as a joke, but when convinced that it was a fact they said all sorts of things. The management somewhat assuaged their feelings by refunding all money for tickets over the Mayor's refusal, and sadly returne to their respective training quarters. It was a bitter blow for them, for, judging from the enthusiasm and advance sale, they would have been royally compensated for them have been royally compensated for their services.

There was considerable criticism over the Mayor's action. The sports, as well as the club, thought that he should have notified them at least several days beforehand that there would not be any mill. In this way they figured a lot of money would have been saved and unnecessary disappointment avoided. The Mayor said that he was not wholly to blame. He declares that he real opposition came from the ministerial association, the members of which have been quietly at work during the last two weeks in an effort to have the Law and Order Society to take up the fight in their behalf. It was contended by the club that the mill was within the bounds of the law and could not be stopped, but the clergy held otherwise. They argued with the Mayor and the pressure influenced the latter, who finally said that the men could not fight.

It is not thought that the combat will be declared off for good. If it is it will mean the sounding of the deathwhell of boxing in Philadelphia. It is understood that the management will take the matter to the courts and test the interference thoroughly. If they win, the limit of the contests may be extended to ten rounds, instead of six, as prevails at present. Both Fitzsimmons and O'Brien will continue to train so as to be ready in case a new date for the go is fixed.

The regatta committee, S. Nicholson Kane, Newbury D. Lawton, Oliver E. Cromwell and Frank Bowne Jones, were on board the tug Unique. On account of the ruling which provides that all players with scores of fifteen strokes behind the contestant in tenth place be ruled out, the field will be materially reduced to-morrow. Scores of 174 made by players were just outside the eligible mark.

Ball. Chandler Egan of Exmoror had the best score for the amateurs, making 163. The tournament started in a rainstorm this morning, but before the second round started this afternoon the weather had cleared.

Thomas T. Rushmore won the play off yesterday at the Midland Golf Club, Garden City, of the triple tie for the Fourth of July cup. He won from Donald Mackellar and F. M. Kerr.

The East Jersey Golf Association, through the courtesy of the home club, will hold a thirty-six hole medal play handicap to-day at the Morris County Golf Club. The four-some tournament will be started at the Nassau Country Club and the links of the Apawamis Club will be open to those who intend to play in the open amateur tournament next week. At the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club for the semi-final of the club championship, W. L. Glenney meets Walter Peterson and Leighton Calkins meets H. S. Hibbard. There will be play at the three Fort Hamilton links, while the seashore links will all be in commission.

The entries for the open amateur tournament at the Apawamis Club close on Tuesday and the play will be on Thursday, Friday and Saturday: In accordance with Apawamis tradition, the qualifying round will be at thirty-six holes and all the match play rounds at eighteen holes. There will be a score medal, a cup and runner-up cup for the first sixteen, a cup for the second sixteen, with a net score cup and gross score medal in the thirty-six hole handicap on the last day.

BOSTONS WRECK POWELUS CURVES AND WIN AGAIN.

The Bostons gave Griffith's pennant hopes nother body blow yesterday, running away to beat Washington, Cleveland beat Detroit twice and rain prevented the St. Louis-Chicago game. The results: Boston, 12: New York, 3.

Philadelphia, 2; Washington, 1. veland, S; Detroit, 1 (First Game). Cleveland, 2: Detroit, 1 (Second Game)

The Bostons seem to regard it presumptuou American League pennant. The Collins clan gave the New Yorks another beating yesterday, and this time chastised them severely It looked like a battle of the weak and the strong, though it really was strong vs. strong. Not weakness on New York's part, but strength on Boston's part carried the day. The Boston strength consisted of batting of the first magnitude. The only thing that could have withstood such hard hitting as the world's champions did yesterday would have been harder hitting, and that the New Yorks were unable to prescribe, although they landed on the ball hard. The game was onesided, but interesting

The New Yorks played a good game, notwithstanding they were repulsed beyond recovery in the first two innings. They were would have done more hitting themselves but for the Boston infield's fine work. the same token, good work by the New York infield kept the voracious visitors partly in check. The vividest performer on the field was Elberfeld, greatest of all shortstops, who made stop after stop that was difficult. to Elberfeld in brilliancy was Ferris, he of the gallus swagger, who daily eats up base

It took the Bostons just two innings to wreck Powell's curves. It was plain after the first inning that Powell was a shining mark for the hungry Hubites, but Manager Griffith, yelept foxy, showed his "foxiness" by letting Powell stay in in the second inning, when the stons went at him with renewed fury. Then after eight hits had been made off Powell ton. Powell was sent to the barn, and Wolfe was produced as a fresh sa crifice. Wolfe's pitching was demolished in one inning, the fourth, after that he pitched a rattling good game the Bostons being unable to reach his side arm flings.
Stahl opened the rout with a three bagger along the first base line. He had hardly paused for breath when Collins drove past Conroy and brought him in. Freeman bunted to centre, scoring Collins and Freeman. The retiring of the side was merely a hiatus in the Boston bombard ment. Ferris led off in the second with a two bagger, and Criger brought him in with a single. Winter sacribrought him in with a single. Winter sacrificed, Conroy mak ing a fine play of it. Stahl drew four balls, Collins struck out, and Freeman walked. Parent swept the decks clean. With the bases filled he hit to right centre for a home run.

Elberfeld's single and Fultz's triple, both singing liners, gave the New Yorks a run in the second inning. Boston's crescendo hitting in the fourth gave four runs. First Collins made a single, then Freeman made a double, then Selbach and Lachance made triples. Successive and difficult stops by Elberfeld back of second base ended the massacre.

The New Yorks made seven hits in the last four innings. Dougherty sent a home run to the right field fence in the eighth. Hits by Conroy, Kleinow and Ganzel brought in a run in the ninth. Excepting once—when Dougherty fanned—both Dougherty and Elberfeld laced the ball hard every time up, but the activity of the Boston fielders held Pat and Norman to one hit aplece. The score:

TAMMANY SUPPORTS BASEBALL. Bets on New York Against St. Louis, but Rain Stops the Game.

Sr. Louis, July 8.-The New Yorks and the Cardinals played two and a half innings at National League Park, the game being called on account of rain when the Cardinals had a play a double header on Saturday. Owing to the fact that the national Democratic convention was not in session. Tammany braves were out in force, rooting for the New Yorks. Men paraded up and down the aisles offering 6 to 5 on New York, with few takers. Later on the odds were raised to 7 to 5, when all the money offered was quickly snapped up by Cardinal admirers until Tammany money became so scarce Neither side had scored when the game was called, though the New Yorks opened strongly. With one man down in the opening inning Browne singled to right and Deviin placed the ball in the same field. Browne attempted to make third on the throw in but the ball was relayed so sharply that he was caught at the bag. O'Day's decision was a close one, but stood notwithstanding the protests of New York. the protests of New York.

Then McGann drove to right field, but Devlin could go no further than second, and as Mertes sent up a nice lit tie fly to Farrell the side was retired without a run. The Cardinals went out one, two, three in their half, as did the New Yorks in the second half, as did the New Yorks in the second inning.

Smoot opened for the home team with a Texas leaguer to centre which Breanshan should have taken, but did not. Brain foul-flied to McGann and Barclay stepped to the plate. The rain came down in torrents and the game was called. After waiting some twenty minutes there was a conference between Nichols and McGraw and the game was called off.
